Explanations on the Operating Results and Financial Conditions

During the Reporting Period, as the demand in the semiconductor market gradually improved, the Company's revenue scale further expanded. As at the end of the Reporting Period, the cumulative revenue reached RMB4,423 million, an increase of 9.48% compared to the same period last year. The cumulative net profit attributable to the parent company reached RMB669 million, an increase of 8.28% compared to the same period last year. Specifically, in Q3, the revenue amounted to RMB1,558 million, an increase of 10.06% compared to the same period last year, and the net profit attributable to the parent company was RMB244 million, an increase of 17.91% compared to the same period last year. The main reasons are as follows:

(1) During the Reporting Period, demand in downstream application areas rebounded. With the rapid transformation of the global automotive industry towards electrification and intelligence, new growth opportunities have been provided for the Company. In the first three quarters of 2024, the Company's automotive electronics business revenue increased by 60% compared to the same period last year. Meanwhile, with the gradual recovery of demand in the consumer electronics and industrial markets, the operating revenue of consumer electronics and industrial products in the first three quarters of 2024 increased by over 20% compared to the same period last year.

(2) Since the beginning of this year, the Company has adhered to the strategy of cost priority and value innovation, continuously promoting cost reduction and efficiency improvement. The results have been significant, and the Company's gross profit margin steadily increased in the first three quarters of 2024.

(3) During the Reporting Period, the Company continuously developed new products with high-tech content and unique performance that meet the specific needs of the market, formed a differentiated competitive edge, and effectively improved the added value of the products, further improving the gross profit of the Company's products.
